

UNIVERSITY of HAWAII
HILO

Erupting fissure on Mauna Loa's Northeast Rift Zone in March 1984.

Mauna Loa: Let's Talk Story

2018 Volcano Awareness Month
Community Program

Saturday, January 13

University of Hawai'i at Hilo - UCB 127

200 W. Kāwili St., Hilo (map on next page)

Free and open to the public.

Come and go at your leisure between 12:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

View informative displays about Mauna Loa Volcano.

Talk story with scientists, public safety officials, and park rangers.

This community program is a collaboration of the USGS Hawaiian Volcano Observatory, Hawai'i County Civil Defense, UH-Hilo Center for the Study of Active Volcanoes, and Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park.

Bring your questions!

Displays will address frequently asked questions about Mauna Loa—its current status, hazards, how to prepare for a future eruption—but other questions are welcome.

Children can engage in activities and demonstrations set up just for them.

For more information, email askHVO@usgs.gov or call (808) 967-8844.

The Mauna Loa program will be held on the main UH-Hilo campus in Room 127 in the University Classroom Building (UCB – in red below).

